Established in 2004, the Wisconsin Chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives is a fully chartered chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives. As a not-for-profit organization, we exist to serve the needs of Wisconsin's health care community.

By becoming an ACHE affiliate, you attain the tools, guidance and support you need to gain an edge in the field. Membership will enhance your knowledge, leadership skills, marketability and relationships so you can excel! ACHE affiliates are automatically given membership in the local chapter, gaining access to the many programs and networking opportunities provided. To join ACHE, visit www.ache.org.

KNOWLEDGE

- Build a broader base of knowledge through the networking and educational meetings.
- Participate in Wisconsin Chapter-sponsored Category I and II educational programs.

LEADERSHIP

- Position yourself as a leader in health care management.
- Demonstrate your desire to improve the health status of society by advancing excellence in health care management.

MARKETABILITY

- Access resources on the ACHE Job Bank.
- Demonstrate your professional commitment and competence with the Fellow credential.

RELATIONSHIPS

- Connect with other members through the online Affiliate Directory and message boards.
- Benefit from networking, education and career development by participating in local events.

Health care executives across Wisconsin are accessing these powerful resources. Our membership represents all fields including hospitals, health agencies, consulting firms, educational organizations, and related public and private organizations.

Benefits of being a member

- Educational programs on current issues
- Communications and networking events with peers
- Professional development
- Educational credits for use toward ACHE advancement and recertification

In addition to opportunities that are open to all members, the Wisconsin Chapter sponsors several groups and activities for young and aspiring executives:

- Young Professional Network
- UW-Milwaukee Future Healthcare Executives
- ACHE Young Healthcare Executive Award
